

Houlton Agricultural Fair Motorcycle Show Rules and Regulations

Conduct and Behavior:

- Participants must conduct themselves in a respectful and sportsmanlike manner at all times.
- Participants are expected to enter and exit the show area in a safe and professional manner. No revving, burnouts, or unsafe riding will be allowed on the Fairgrounds.
- Any form of aggressive or inappropriate behavior will not be tolerated and may result in disqualification and may be asked to leave the Fairgrounds.

Event Regulations:

- Participants must follow all instructions provided by event organizers and officials.
- Failure to comply with event regulations may result in penalties or disqualification.
- Once participants enter the Fairgrounds with a motorcycle, that motorcycle must remain in the event area until the show is completed.
- Stanchions or ropes may be used to protect motorcycles from spectator contact. Participants are responsible for providing their own if desired. These are not mandatory.
- When leaving the event, motorcycles must be escorted out of the show area to ensure the safety of both pedestrian and vehicle traffic.

Liability and Waiver:

- Participants acknowledge and accept any risks associated with participating in events organized by the Houlton Fair Association.
- The Houlton Fair Association and its affiliates are not liable for any damages, injuries, or losses incurred during events.

Photography and Media:

- By participating in our events, participants consent to the use of their likeness and motorcycle's image for promotional purposes.
- The Houlton Fair Association reserves the right to photograph or record events and participants for promotional use.

Event Judging:

- Judging will be conducted by the event participants themselves. Each registered participant will receive a judging ballot to vote for their favorite motorcycles in each category.
- Participants may not vote in the class in which they are registered.
- Participants are expected to judge fairly and in the spirit of good sportsmanship.
- All ballots must be submitted by the deadline set by event staff.
- All judging decisions are final and binding.

Disqualification and Penalties:

- Participants found in violation of event rules and regulations may be subject to disqualification or penalties.
- Decisions regarding disqualification and penalties will be made by event officials and organizers.

Updates and Amendments:

- The Houlton Fair Association reserves the right to update or amend event rules and regulations at any time.
- Participants are responsible for staying informed about any changes to the rules and regulations. Updates will be posted at registration or announced by event staff.
